

Salesforce - Integration with idQ Enterprise

Purpose

Salesforce federated authentication service allows users to log in to Salesforce using SAML (Security Assertion Markup Language) authentication.

This guide describes how to perform configuration to integrate Salesforce with idQ Enterprise so that users can log in to Salesforce through SAML authentication.

Requirements:

1. Salesforce account with administrative privileges.
2. idQ Enterprise account with administrative privileges.

Support

Email: support@inbaytech.com