

idQ PAM for Ubuntu

idQ PAM for Ubuntu (Pluggable Authentication Module) is an integration package that enables idQ push notification as the second authentication factor for remote login to a Ubuntu based platform. idQ push notification is provided by the cloud based idQ Enterprise platform.

For instructions on how to install the idQ PAM onto a Ubuntu platform and configure it to work with idQ Enterprise, consult the Installation Guide.

Installation Guide

Once installed, refer to the Quick Start Guides for information on how to get started using idQ Two Factor Authentication for remote login to a Linux server.

Quick Configuration Guide - Administrators

Quick Start Guide - Users